

- Summer stipend, and travel assistance
- Long-term mentoring
- Academic and professional development
- Year-round, monthly virtual 'hangouts' to maintain peer support and continue professional development
- Weekly cohort meetings during summer
- Participation in American Astronomical Society winter meeting
- Participation in annual NAC Workshop at Howard University
- Opportunities to present research to prominent members of professional societies, universities, and governmental agencies

Click for
More Information

To contact the NAC please send an email to odi@nrao.edu.

 We define under-represented groups to mean all of the following, but not limited to, people of color, women, sexual orientation and gender identity minorities, economically disadvantaged and first-generation college students.*

 Students with 'grit' exhibit passion for a particular long-term goal, along with powerful motivation for achieving their objectives.*